let this time of worship be a hallowed hour. (VU 396)*

Jesus challenges us to find meaning in his teachings and in our lives. May the light of Christ lead us to places of understanding and light. Amen

Call to Worship-Appel à la prière

We walk by faith, and not by sight, seeking your company, desiring your presence. As the Spirit moves, let us welcome the unexpected: you and your unfathomable love, O God, you and your astounding grace. Surprise us again as we raise our voices in praise.

Opening Prayer

Spirit of God, settle in among us; look past our external features and peer inside our hearts. See us for who we really are: yours. Stubborn, doubting, self-centred and yet, ever yours. Grant us insight to see as you see and the confidence to allow your unpredictable choices to lead us closer to you. Amen.

And again, He entered Capernaum after some days, and it was heard that He was in the house. Immediately many gathered together, so that there was no longer room to receive them, not even near the door. And He preached the word to them. Then they came to Him, bringing a paralytic who was carried by four men. And when they could not come near Him because of the crowd, they uncovered the roof where He was. So when they had broken through, they let down the bed on which the paralytic was lying.
