– Responsive Prayer for Pentecost Today -

May the words of our mouths, and the prayers from our hearts honor God this day and always

Holy Spirit: luscious and abundant energy of heaven, enlivening dry bones to dance a new dance of vibrant conspiracy – God’s own dance of resurrection.

As flame she clears the wasteland, as water she runs in the earth as wind she blows through the desert. The Spirit makes a new day.

Holy Spirit: disturber of the world and catalyst of change, filling us with the energy of heaven and a call to renew the world with songs of justice and words of peace – God’s word, of resurrection.

With flame the Holy Spirit lights a passion with water she soaks our birth with wind she blows a new order. The Spirit makes a new day

Holy Spirit: shaper of the future, interrupting our now;
burning through all that is corrupt, with a revelation of justice;
filling the old and young with new vision and dreams – God’s dream, of resurrection.

With flame she burns a candle, with water she quenches our thirst, with wind she shakes through our dryness. The Spirit makes a new day.
